The Michigan residents were Tony McDonald, Mary McDonald and Laura Cynkiet.

The pair fled into the woods and an all-out search by Investigator Say, and Alvin Ledner, Hancock, Deputies and Highway Patrol turned up no suspect.

Peterson asked the sheriff for the road to take the arrest of four persons on charges of growing and cultivating marijuana.

The search of the fields and the two women was made by the sheriff and two officers from the Hancock County Sheriff's Office. The two women were taken to a rooming place near the highway where a marijuana plant was found growing in a pot in the trunk they were traveling in.

The four are scheduled for a preliminary hearing before Justice Court Judge Lee Klein on Oct. 7.

Now is the time to plant

Now is the time to plant spring flowers such as tulips, crocuses, hyacinths, daffodils, Dutch iris and pansies. Daffodils and Dutch iris are especially good for Mississippi because they bloom every year with little trouble.

Jim Perry, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service horticulturist, says one common mistake in planting bulbs is improper site selection.

Perhaps the most popular spring-flowering bulb is the tulip. There are many varieties, sizes and colors of tulips. They should be regarded as annuals since they do not rebloom consistently.

Defense shines in Hawk victory

By EOGAR PERCY
A fine threat quarterback, a balling fullback and a defense determined to preserve a slim two-point victory margin were the keys to a Hancock North Central win over Forrest County Agricultural High in Hawk Stadium Friday night.

Junior Mark Santalla, who came on a quarterback after from 15 yards out, threw a two-point conversion pass to halfback Lydell Curry and connected on an 11-yard touchdown aerial to end Rodney Necaise as a part of his contribution to the Hawks' 21-13 triumph over the Aggies.

The loss to Hancock was apparently a total surprise to the Aggies as several of the warriors from Hwy. 49 were in tears in the Hawk Stadium visitors locker room after the game.

HNC fullback Dennis Lacoste served notice on the visitors they hadn't come to a the party was over when he kicked from the 15-yard line in the second quarter.

A pass interference foul against the Hawks' defense in the second quarter set the Aggies on a drive.

The Hawks' defense was solid at that point, but the Aggies' offense was playing on all night.

try was no good. That early snarl of violence kept Lacoste smiling through Aggie defenses throughout the game and earned him a large portion of the credit for his team's victory.

The Aggies, apparently stunned by the fast action on the Hawk scoreboard, were forced into a punt situation by a Hawk defense described later by Head Coach Irvin Favre as "inspired."

With Lacoste leading the way, the Hawks drove 40 yards to set up Santalla's 19-yard run into pay dirt.

Fayard boots Bay Tigers over Pass Pirates, 3-0

By BRENT MACEY
A 31-yard field goal by Bay High Tiger Van Fayard in the beginning of the third quarter of a game against the Pass Christian Pirates was the key score the Tigers needed for a 3-0 win Friday night in Pass Christian.

That point was set up shortly after the Tigers kicked off to begin the second half.

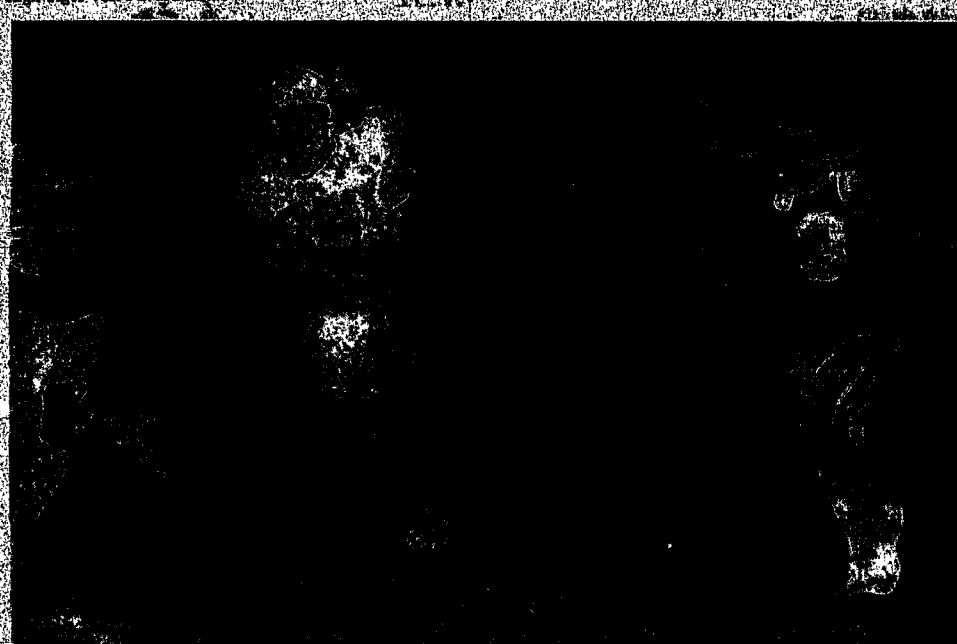

Pass Christian receiver Melvin Janet caught the ball and then fumbled on the Pirates' 40-yard line after being hit by a number of Bay defenders.

The Tigers managed one first down before being held on the Pirate 15-yard line.

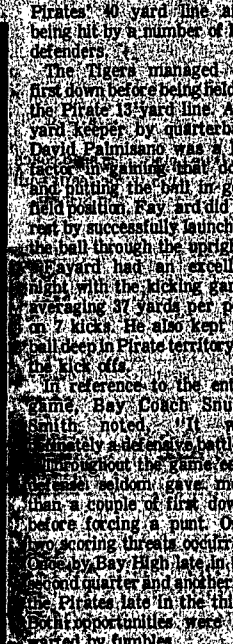

Way to the the Tiger 8 yard line. Pirate full back Ben Fields, who galloped 41 of those yards and totalled 70 yards for the game, dropped the football on a pitch from quarter back Ira Bradley and Bay recovered.

Impartiality on U.S. Supreme Court essential to rule of law principal

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article, written by David Rosenberg, a law candidate in government and constitutional history at Claremont Graduate School, who also is studying law at Washington University, is provided to the San Jose Echo by Public Research, Syndicate of Claremont, Calif.

The appointment of Judge Sandra D. O'Connor to the United States Supreme Court is a poignant reminder of what was at stake in last year's Republican Party platform. That document criticized the President to appoint judges who shared the pro-life and pro-family views which have characterized the "New Right."

The appointment of Judge O'Connor is under attack as an attempt to politicize the court. It is, however, a reminder of the importance of the Supreme Court in our society. The Court is the final arbiter of the Constitution, and its decisions can have a profound impact on the lives of all Americans.

For almost a century, the Supreme Court has been a source of wisdom and guidance. It has protected the rights of the individual against the power of the government. It has upheld the principles of justice and fairness. It has been a beacon of hope for the oppressed and a source of strength for the righteous.

The appointment of Judge O'Connor is a testament to the enduring power of the Supreme Court. It is a reminder that the Court is not just a collection of judges, but a living institution that shapes the destiny of the nation.

The Supreme Court is the final arbiter of the Constitution, and its decisions can have a profound impact on the lives of all Americans. It is the duty of the Court to uphold the principles of justice and fairness, and to protect the rights of the individual against the power of the government.

Sharing Singles to meet Sept. 17

The Sharing Singles, a non-denominational support group whose members have lost a life partner through death, divorce, or separation, is open to others in the community who are experiencing the same circumstance.

The purpose of the group is to share and assist one another with the problems of establishing and maintaining an independent life style.

Began last spring as it became evident that such an outreach was needed in this area, the Sharing Singles are beginning a new season.

The style of the meetings is undergoing change in order to be of a more complete service. Members are invited to share their ideas concerning what future programs might offer.

During the meeting set for September 17, a guest speaker will be present.

"Death of A Relationship" is the subject, with an open discussion to follow the presentation.

Folk dancing is planned for the meeting to be held September 24, and present members are looking forward to instruction in this art form. Meetings are now held each Thursday at 7 p.m. in Fellowship Hall at the United Methodist Church on Main Street in Bay St. Louis.
